Fr Bob Writes:

Baptism is called the gate of the sacraments, or the entrance way to the church itself. All the promises of salvation, converging from various biblical sources, become real in baptism. The baptism of Jesus, which we celebrate this weekend, is found in three of the gospels, each with a different shade of meaning. But more than the baptism of Jesus is recounted; the baptismal theophany points to our own baptism as well. The Father acknowledges Jesus as Son and favoured one, upon whom God's Spirit rests. In the recognition, there are echoes of the first servant song, our first reading today. In the second reading, from the Acts of the Apostles, there is emphasis on the access to salvation now open to all people.

In the gospel for this weekend, Matthew's account of the baptism of Jesus, we see Jesus coming from Galilee to Judea expressly for baptism. The problem which this creates for John the Baptist, as reflected in various ways in the gospels, is actually the problem of the early church, in reconciling the sinless Jesus with the reception of a sinner's baptism. This explains John's reluctance to proceed with baptising Jesus, whom John recognizes as the one who should baptize him. Jesus' response recognizes the difficulty, but still insists in going ahead with the baptism, "to fulfil all righteousness". Jesus is saying that, although it seems difficult to understand, yet he believes his Father's will requires this step of obedience and submission. Jesus indicates that he comes as Savior in sharing the lot of a sinful people and being recognized as God's Son and servant. The recognition of Jesus by the Father as his Son, is coupled with his being the one "with whom I am well pleased," a reference to Jesus as the "servant of the Lord" in keeping with the Isaian prophecy of our first reading. Jesus is the one who fulfills the Isaian prophecy in bringing salvation to the nations through a spirit of total submission to God's will.

Thus Matthew teaches that the baptism of Jesus is the moment of the decisive fulfilment of God's plan; it inaugurates the messianic era. It is the anointing of Jesus for his messianic mission, as the spirit of God always comes to an individual to enable him to accomplish a specific task. What task has the gift of the Spirit in our baptism, been preparing for you and me?

Jubilee Year of Hope Ends January 6th

Holy Door Closes as Faithful Prepare for Special 2033 Jubilee Marking Jesus' Death and Resurrection

As Pope Leo XIV closes the Holy Door at St. Peter's Basilica on Jan. 6, the feast of the Epiphany, and the 2025 Jubilee Year comes to an end, the Catholic Church begins to anticipate another jubilee — one that will mark 2,000 years since Jesus Christ's death and resurrection.

Although traditionally a jubilee only happens every 25 years, the Holy Door is slated to reopen for a special 2033 Jubilee when the Church will celebrate the Holy Year of the Redemption. To mark the occasion, Pope Leo has called on people to travel to the Holy Land, where Jesus once lived and died.

The Holy Father concluded his talk by inviting listeners "to travel together on the spiritual journey that leads to the Jubilee of the Redemption in 2033, with the prospect of a return to Jerusalem," the press office said.

Catechism Corner

Join us weekly in this space in the bulletin as we look at the Catechism of the Catholic Church from its very first entry. We'll go slowly, taking one entry a week, starting next week. Before we start, here is something of interest:

Why the Catechism Is So Important I was recently in conversation with a convert to Catholicism and he told me that he was reading the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC). But because I was curious, I asked why; why read the Catechism when there are countless other spiritual readings? He responded that he is reading the Catechism because it is challenging. His introduction to it in RCIA opened a humbling and life-changing door. Every question that he has had was answered in the Catechism. He said that it made him question his faith, and the answers he found helped strengthen it. He saw all of the connections in the Catechism, like how Scriptural interpretation has been carried out and how the ancient Church is present in Vatican II documents. For him, reading the Catechism has been a journey of conversion, an increase in wisdom, and a return to the heart of the Church.

Why is it important to support the parishes financially?

Just like any other charity or non-profit organization, it costs money to keep St. Philip Parish and St. Clare Mission afloat. For example, the annual operating expenditure budget of St. Philip Parish is approximately $155,000, which goes towards paying for the following items:

- Paying for the parish priest, the parish office administrator, replacement priests to say Mass and the parish bookkeeper;
- Diocesan tax on parish revenues (donations);
- Utilities (heat, hydro, water, sewer, utilities, etc.)
- Repairs and maintenance on St. Philip Church, the Parish Hall, and other buildings and grounds;
- Office expenses; and,
- Pastoral expenses.

In addition, St. Philip Parish also spends about $10,000-$20,000 per year on major projects and renovations to replace and/or renovate the parish buildings and other items within the parish.
