Fr Bob Writes:

Today's liturgy of the word couples John the Baptist's recognition of Jesus and his mission with Isaiah's second song of the suffering servant. What is said of the mission of Jesus is to be duplicated in the life of every Christian. As Paul indicates in the second reading, the Christian is "consecrated" and "called" just as was Jesus himself.

The second reading today ties in closely with the overall theme of election: initiated in the servant, fulfilled in Jesus, and continued in every Christian and the church as a whole. This election results in our forgiveness and is also the source of our mission. The servant theme is also continued in the church's ministry, applied by Paul to his own calling (Acts 13:47; Galatians 1:15; Romans 15:2). We so easily forget that our election carries with it a real sense of responsibility. Our call signifies a consecration or sacredness before the Lord. It also means that we have been forgiven. Yet the Christian life is not restricted to the sanctuary. The servant was missioned as was Jesus. Paul identifies himself as an apostle, one who is sent. The same is true of us, sent to the neighbourhood, the workplace, the town or the city. We are called to bring a deep commitment to Christian values to the world. How well are we doing with this?

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity 2026

One Body, One Spirit, One Hope
Ephesians 4:4

From: Living With Christ January 2026 Newsletter

“Just as at sea, those who are carried away from the direction of the harbour bring themselves back on course by a clear sign, so scripture may guide those adrift on the sea of life back into the harbour of the divine will.” St. Gregory of Nyssa (c. 335–394)

On January 18-25 we observe the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. We see God's desire for unity throughout the Bible. In the Old Testament, God tells Israel in Leviticus 19:18, “You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against any of your people, but you shall love your neighbour as yourself.” We hear the same words echo in the New Testament in Mark 12:29-31 in the Golden Rule, but also when Paul tells the followers of Christ that they “represent ‘one body and one spirit,’ united in a single hope. This metaphor signifies the Church as a unified entity transcending barriers of geography, nationality, ethnicity and tradition. (LWC January, p. 184)” Let us therefore “support one another and celebrate our diverse gifts and talents, let us reflect the heart of Christ and further his work on earth.” For resources for the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity 2026, please visit the World Council of Churches at <https://www.oikoumene.org/> or weekofprayer.ca

Catechism Corner

For what purpose are we here on earth? We are here on earth in order to know and to love God, to do good according to his will, and to go someday to heaven. To be a human being means to come from God and to go to God. Our origin goes back farther than our parents. We come from God, in whom all the happiness of heaven and earth is at home, and we are expected in his everlasting, infinite blessedness. Meanwhile we live on this earth. Sometimes we feel that our Creator is near; often we feel nothing at all. So that we might find the way home, God sent us his Son, who freed us from sin, delivers us from all evil, and leads us unerringly into true life. He is "the way, and the truth, and the life" (Jn 14:6). (YOUCAT question 1) Dig Deeper: CCC section (1-10) and other references here.

Why is it important to support the parishes financially?

Just like any other charity or non-profit organization, it costs money to keep St. Philip Parish and St. Clare Mission afloat. For example, the annual operating expenditure budget of St. Philip Parish is approximately $155,000, which goes towards paying for the following items:

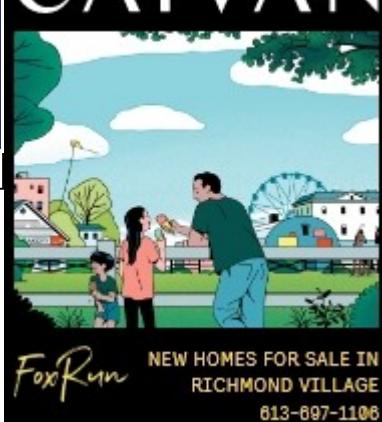

- Paying for the parish priest, the parish office administrator, replacement priests to say Mass and the parish bookkeeper;
- Diocesan tax on parish revenues (donations);
- Utilities (heat, hydro, water, sewer, utilities, etc.)
- Repairs and maintenance on St. Philip Church, the Parish Hall, and other buildings and grounds;
- Office expenses; and,
- Pastoral expenses.

In addition, St. Philip Parish also spends about $10,000-$20,000 per year on major projects and renovations to replace and/or renovate the parish buildings and other items within the parish.
